Installation steps

The CMake script provided with the example code will download and install further dependencies, such as Boost, Google Benchmark, and Google Test.

Build Instructions

Several steps are required to build the code examples. Please refer the build instructions from the code bundle which is hosted on GitHub at <https://github.com/PacktPublishing/Cpp-High-Performance-Second-Edition/blob/master/README.md>. If there's an update to the code, it will be updated on the existing GitHub repository.
